ALUMNAE NOTES.

Miss Ciara Richards visited Jesse Hammerly during the past month.

Miss Lottie Broddus, of the first graduating class of the Normal, visited her sisters, Lucille and Phoebe Broddus.

Miss Keith Sinclair, of the class of '21, has been elected as the sponsor from Hampton and Elizabeth City county for the Virginia Pageant to be held in Richmond in May.

All alumnae making any change in their permanent address should notify the school at once. Important literature, including the catalogue, will be missed unless this is done.

The Bullet staff wishes to thank the alumnae for their co-operation in sending news about themselves, and we hope that they will continue to do so.

Leah Lewis, who graduated from the Normal in December, is now teaching in Portsmouth.

Elizabeth Landon, who graduated March 10th, is teaching in Hampton. She spent a week-end at the Normal last month.

President A. B. Chandler, Jr., during March organized the alumnae in Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News and Hampton. He reports splendid meetings with great interest and enthusiasm.

Last month Miss Margaret White, class of '17, spent a week-end with her sister, Miss Gertrude White. Her visit was enjoyed by all, and her address at assembly, dealing with her work among the factory girls of Richmond, was very interesting.

CRAWFORD ADAMS CONCERT.

On the evening of March 21, we had the last and one of the best of our Lyceum attractions. The entertainment was given by the Crawford Adams Company, composed of a pianist, violinist, and reader. The whole program was splendid and thoroughly enjoyed; but when towards its close, Mr. Adams played specially requested selections the audience went wild with enthusiasm.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

Last month we had several enjoyable musical programs in chapel, rendered by Mrs. A. P. Rowe, Miss Williams, and Mr. Bauman. Mrs. Rowe and Mr. Bauman are musicians of the city of Fredericksburg.

The Senior Class had charge of the exercises two mornings. They presented two attractive farces, entitled "A Modern School," and "A Modern Courtship."

THE BIGGEST CIRCUS EVER SEEN AT F. S. N. S.

One of the events of the season was the circus given in the gym by the Senior Class of the Normal. Among its chief attractions were: the "Shiek" a magician second to none, the Poodle and the Bull Dog with the human mind, Hi-Ski only Japanese juggler at F. S. N. S., Retina and Elephants the smallest and largest women in the world, the only white monkey in captivity, and Madamoselle Flora Belle, the most famous tight-rope walker in the world.

MR. AND MRS. CHANDLER ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chandler, Jr., gave the Senior Class a reception on the evening of March 25th. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with palms and baskets of jounquils. After a very interesting contest, musicians and readers of home talent gave a delightful entertainment.

LOOK AT THE VIRGINIA JOURNAL OF EDUCATION!

The April issue of the Virginia Journal of Education was devoted largely to a review of the life and work of the Fredericksburg Normal. An article of four pages with handsome cuts is included in this issue of the Journal.

MANY FORMER JUNIORS TO RETURN.

A large number of former Juniors have registered to come back to the Normal in June for their first Senior quarter.

An enrollment of about 600 is expected for both terms of the summer school.

After the game in which Fredericksburg Normal played Wilson Normal, on their own floor, Wilson Normal wrote, in the "Star" of March 12, that although their team was beaten by the Fredericksburg team, that it worked enthusiastically and the reason for its enthusiasm was its admiration for the Virginia team, an earnest, vigorous lot of young women, playing a clean game strictly by rule." The Fredericksburg girls would like to say the same thing of the Wilson girls and that they never saw a lot of better sports.

Junior: "Some of the famous men that live around Fredericksburg must have had awfully good memories."

Senior: "Why, my dear?"

Junior: "Because everywhere I go in Fredericksburg I see a monument erected to the memory of some famous man."

WINTER CATALOG FOR 1922-23.

The material for the 1922-23 winter catalog went to press on April 1st and will be ready for distribution by May 1st.

Now that reports for the second term are in the hands of the students, some of them feel that the battle of the Marne was not the only time when the slogan was, "They shall not pass!"

GINGHAM BALL.

The students enjoyed another dance on March 24th. It was given for the benefit of the annual.

Tip to the hair trade: A girl that gets her hair bobbed ought to be switched, and she will be soon as bobbed hair is going out of fashion.

ATHLETICS.

"All's well that ends well" may be applied to the end of our basketball season very fittingly. For it did end in a most surprising way by a game between the varsity and the second team, in which the second team played in a creditable manner, making the largest score of any of our opponents from the various schools. Then the comedy and tragedy teams played, but we can certainly say that nothing very "tragedious" happened, and much fun resulted for the onlookers.

The varsity team made 272 points in the six games played this season, the opposing teams making 65 in all.

All of us who have taken a part in athletics are looking forward eagerly to the time when we may be seated around the May Queen and receive the numerals and monograms which are to be awarded for special merit. Surely any of us will feel good if we get a numeral, but the chosen few who win monograms may pat themselves on their backs and have no stricken consciences over it at all. A candidate for a monogram must have 1,000 points in athletics.

The varsity team members will each win a monogram. Charlotte White is the only girl, other than the members of the varsity, who is running close for a monogram. "Charlie" has 300 points in tennis, having played singles against Eva Oliver and won for the Seniors! 150 points in baseball and 400 in basketball; only lacking 150, which we feel sure "Charlie" will make up on field day.

As the spring comes tennis as usual is taking its accustomed place in the outdoor sports. The Seniors especially are playing daily. No doubt some Molly Bjursteds will develop from our Senior hosts.

The badge contest will have been over by the time this issue of The Bullet is out. This is a Junior affair, the Seniors having trained the Juniors. A badge will be given to the successful contestants.

Preparations are being made for field day. The Juniors are coming forth and the Seniors must not fear too much, yet they must hustle a bit.

The track team will be selected within a few weeks and will practice at every opportunity.

Sweaters have been ordered for the varsity team. Very effective they will be too with the monograms of brown and gold.

We are eagerly waiting to see how go the honors of the spring athletics, for we know the program will be one of closely fought contests.

JUNIOR PLAY.

On April 7th, some of the members of the Junior Class gave a very attractive play, entitled, "Miss Fearless and Co."

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The work of the Y. W., is progressing as usual. The Sunday night services during the past month, in which groups of girls haven taken part, have been most interesting. The subject of the services has been, "The Gospel According to You." We find by the large attendance that these prove worthy of praise.

Dr. Cammack, Secretary of the Baptist Mission Board, spoke at one of our services last month. He helped us organize mission study classes on the various countries. All of those taking these classes find them most interesting.

We were glad to have with us Mrs. Hazen Smith, a Presbyterian Service Worker. She was here from Monday until Wednesday and spoke in vespers and assembly on the subject of Service. All of the girls enjoyed her visit and felt greatly benefitted by her talks.

Miss Margaret White, a former graduate of F. S. N. S. and now an Industrial Worker in Richmond, Virginia, spent the past week-end with her sister, Miss Gertrude White. She brought us a message in song which helped each and every one. She also gave a very interesting talk in assembly which was enjoyed by all. We were so glad to have her and we hope she will come again.

We thank Dr. Gilmore for talking at one of our vesper services last month. We are always glad to have him in our midst.

We were very fortunate in having Dr. Weeks speak to us recently in assembly. Dr. Weeks, pastor of the Grace Street Baptist Church in Richmond, is now holding a revival at the Baptist church in Fredericksburg.

The thing which interested us most the pastor week, was the election of officers for the coming year which took place last week. The officers are: Mrs. Bernice Thomas, President; Miss Lucille Hawes, Vice-President; Miss Ettie Harvey, Secretary; Miss Mabel Thompson, Treasurer; Miss Katherine Reynolds, Under Graduate Representative.

We wish them greatest success in their work for the coming year and feel that the mantle of able service which has slipped from the shoulders of those who preceder has fittingly fallen on their own.
